

EMPLOYMENT PREVIEW

We are pleased that you are interested in employment with the Jackson County Public Library. Please allow us to preview what you can expect while working for the Library.

Public libraries are the center of knowledge where people of all ages, backgrounds, and beliefs come together in discovery and awareness.

Helping to make connections and community impact while working in a library can be one of the most interesting and satisfying jobs in the world! Many employees have told us that they did not fully understand what library employees did behind the scenes and were surprised to find that library work is hard work and it can be fast paced or even strenuous at times.

We require a welcoming attitude.

We expect all customers to be treated with dignity, respect, and an exceptionally friendly attitude, at all times, and under all circumstances. We also expect employees to be alert and interested in helping customers, providing information, and helping with selections upon request. This is not an optional responsibility; we consistently measure and monitor your performance.

What can I expect when serving the public in a Library?

Library work is more than reading books. It involves making sure that materials are available and easy for the customers to find. It involves dusting, straightening, restocking, and moving materials. It involves regular use of technology, including new technology; to be an effective library employee will require an open attitude to new technology and technological devices. Of course, this job may require that you are on your feet, lifting and bending, as well as regular computer use.

- Our Application for Employment form must be completely filled out, even if you are also submitting your current resumé for a job opening.
- The library director or branch manager will select applicants he or she would like to interview. Please consider that applications are not reviewed until an acceptable number of submissions have been received. Therefore, a considerable amount of time may pass before you may be contacted for an interview.
- If there are no current job openings in the Library system for which you qualify, the Library will still keep your application active for six months and may review your application for similar positions. It will thereafter be placed in the inactive file for the remainder of one year. A periodic call or email message from you is all that is necessary in order to keep your application listed as active.
- Please contact the library if you wish to be considered for available, advertised positions and it has been more than six months since you submitted your application. Your inactive application may then be pulled and reviewed. It is to your benefit to keep your application updated.
- Please contact the library if you need assistance or have any questions regarding the status of your application.

If a job at the library interests you, we welcome you to complete the following Employment Application.
Thank you!
